

Station #1

Lift the medicine ball up to waist height.

What is the gravitational potential energy of the ball at this height?

Have another member of your group do the same thing. Did the second person do more, less, or the same amount of work? Explain your answer.